The Insect Festival Oct 30 2019 Neela, a teenager daughter of the top industrialist of Bangladesh who was alone. Animesh, a son of a teacher-parents of a small town, was appointed as her tutor, and additional duty was given by trusting him to guide her. She loved him, but her mom arranged her marriage with a son of another industrialist which she liked too. Then she had contradiction. She finally decided to get him, but he left her initially. Finally, they got married and struggled as she diagnosed cancer, then they tour the world. He was told the struggling life of his parents during the Freedom-Fight.

Forced Out Feb 01 2020 A gay, black, British police officer's memoir of prejudice, racism and homophobia on the force in the twenty-first century. Kevin Maxwell was a dream candidate for the police force—he had a long-held desire to serve his community, a strong moral compass and a clear aptitude for both the strategic and practical aspects of policing. And, as a gay black man from a working-class family, he could easily have been a poster boy for the force's stated commitment to equal opportunities. Joining just after the 9/11 attacks, Kevin entered policing determined to keep communities safe in the face of a changing world. But instead, he came up against entrenched prejudice, open racism and homophobia. For more than ten years, Kevin strove against the odds, until he took the force to an employment tribunal—with devastating results. Forced Out is a revelatory exposé combining deeply affecting memoir with sharp analysis and a fascinating insider perspective on day-to-day life in the force. It is a touchstone for the silent many who have either tried to ignore abuse for the sake of their career or who have been bullied out of their jobs. It paints a sobering portrait of an institution that has not yet learned the lessons of the past and whose prejudice is informing the cases it chooses to investigate and the way it investigates them. And it asks the important question: what needs to change? "One of the most compulsive books I've read in a long while." -Bernadine Evaristo, award-winning author of Girl, Woman, Other

Girl of a Widow Oct 11 2020 Orthodox and outdated social codes imposed on widows cause Prabha, her mother-in-law, Yashoda, and daughter, Ritu great distress. Yashoda believes that the life of a widow is the most pitiable as she is considered an object of hatred that hampers her own progress and the progress of her whole family. There is no place where she can seek her existence, identity and pour out her grief. Widows are considered no longer fit to perform any pious and auspicious activities as society is under falsely prevailing dogmas, beliefs and superstitions. Prabha believes that instead of neglecting the widows, they need sympathy, acceptability and join hands of the people in every walk of life. Ritu feels great agony when listening to the taunts and comments of the neighbouring women on the widows. She overcomes the adverse situation by shifting from India to Chicago (America) to practise as a general physician. There, she seeks love and gets wounded in two consecutive volatile marriages: one with Sandeep, of Indian origin, and the other with Dr. Johnson, an American. The later one's failure causes her grandmother's heart attack, and she returns to India with her mother for her last cremation rites. The novel follows the powerful journey of the three and the challenges they face.

THE AWAITED SPRING May 06 2020 How do you expect someone to be whose almost three decades of life has seen nothing but tragedy? From early loss of parents, orphanage-life, a broken marriage to being a single parent of a wee-aged child, Pritha Sharma has seen it all. It's as if the winter is everlasting for her. Layer after layer, the ice is getting frozen deeply which can only be thawed by a glimpse of Spring. The one she's awaiting. Amidst the tangled string-ball of complications her life has become, she was least expecting an attraction at first sight. Something that's here to change her whole life. Aadit Khanna was definitely born with a silver spoon but never got the chance to taste the sweetness of the food served with it. A full-timer Corporate guy who's part-time trying to nurse his broken heart since half a decade, keeping himself away from his family. The only person who's allowed to see and dress his scarring wound is him. His life is programmed and bland, lacking the cheerfulness of a Spring. Amidst the process of imprisoning his emotions inside his heart, he was least expecting an attraction at first sight. Something that's here to change his whole life. When Fate decides a destination, no path is worth leaving uncharted. When Spring decides to blossom happiness in your life, no heart is left with the possibility to deny. Especially, if it's The Awaited Spring.

Dissevered (Khandita) Dec 01 2019 Belonging to what one may best describe as representative of the culture of the 'urban popular', the novella dissevered (khandita), published seventy years after independence, incorporates the birth pangs of a newly emergent nation experienced by the so-called 'gully boys', Gora, bias, and Sati, in a form that presents historical events through the techniques of fiction. Its added significance to the modern reader is its prescient quality, bringing to the fore dominant questions of nationalism, identity crises, communal disharmony, and citizenship that mark public discourse in the present times. In the portrayal of events and personalities which belong to the twin history of the Partition and the birth of a new nation (Bangladesh), and through a language of the gutters that ironically mimics the mores of civic society, The desire for unity of the nation felt by the three disoriented youths is in the realm of the ideal possible. This is metaphorically envisioned in the figure of Gandhi in Noakhali and as embodied in the desire for the nomadic female with amputated arms by satu, one of the three young men. This novella perhaps best illustrates Samarendra Bose's genius as a writer, who could translate his experience of historical time in all its multiple complexities without the imposition of any doctrine (despite his leftist leanings). It remains a unique depiction of the conflicting emotions experienced by ordinary folks on the eve of India's independence.

Part III concentrates on developing reading and writing skills, identifies 'bad' reading habits, describes the essentials of good handwriting, etc. Part IV considers the importance of teaching prose and poetry in the class and suggests ways to make their teaching/ learning more effective. It also discusses the different types of tests and suggests remedial measures that a teacher can undertake to prevent the mistakes that students commit while using English effectively. Part V discusses different kinds of grammars and the teaching of grammar.

The Love Victim Dec 25 2021 'Love Victim' is a heart-wrenching debut channeling a melodramatic journey of two lovers. Nishkarsh and Barkha in their late 20's fall in sweet love and share their romantic moments in a journey full of twists and turns. This typical 21st century love meanders through a series of unexpected ghastly moments because little did they realize that life had planned it quite the opposite of their passionate love. Sailing through a multitude of emotions, they struggle to cope with their feelings, families and society. The fight for their true love climaxes at a dark turn with the most ghastly and unpredictable end of Nishkarsh and Barkha. Drawing inspiration from the realities of real life love stories, this novel takes you through a roller-coaster ride of emotions: from love, happiness, ecstasy, sensuous fantasy to shock, pain, horror and fatality. It is a must-read love 'ballad'.

The Ancient Egyptian Universal Writing Modes Nov 23 2021 The Egyptian Alphabetical language is the MOTHER and origin of all languages; and how it was diffused to become other 'languages' throughout the world. This book will show how the Egyptians had various modes of writings for various purposes, and how the Egyptian modes were falsely designated as "separate languages" belonging to others. ;the falsehood of having different languages on the Rosetta (and numerous other like) Stone; evaluation of the "hieratic" and "demotic" forms of writing. The book will also highlight how the Egyptian Alphabetical language is the MOTHER and origin of all languages (as confirmed by all writers of antiquities); and how this one original language came to be called Greek, Hebrew, Arabic and other 'languages' throughout the world—through deterioration of sound values via 'sound shifts', as well as foreign degradation of the original Egyptian writing forms. The book is divided into seven parts with a total of 24 chapters, as follows: Part I. Denial, Distortion and Diversion has 3 chapters—Chapters 1 to 3: Chapter 1: The Archetypal Primacy of The Egyptian Alphabet will show the role and remote history of alphabetical letter-forms writing in Ancient Egypt prior to any other place on earth. Unicode Demystified Oct 03 2022 Unicode is a critical enabling technology for developers who want to internationalize applications for global environments. But, until now, developers have had to turn to standards documents for crucial information on utilizing Unicode. In Unicode Demystified, one of IBM's leading software internationalization experts covers every key aspect of Unicode development, offering practical examples and detailed guidance for integrating Unicode 3.0 into virtually any application or environment. Writing from a developer's point of view, Rich Gillam presents a systematic introduction to Unicode's goals, evolution, and key elements. Gillam illuminates the Unicode standards documents with insightful discussions of character properties, the Unicode character database, storage formats, character sequences, Unicode normalization, character encoding conversion, and more. He presents practical techniques for text processing, locating text boundaries, searching, sorting, rendering text, accepting user input, and other key development tasks. Along the way, he offers specific guidance on integrating Unicode with other technologies, including Java, JavaScript, XML, and the Web. For every developer building internationalized applications, internationalizing existing applications, or interfacing with systems that already utilize Unicode.

Deceived Nov 11 2020 The man in the bushes came out of hiding, lifted the woman like a rag doll, cradled her in his arms, walked up to his car and dumped her in the boot, which was still open. He did not bother to check whether she was dead or alive. He then removed his blood-stained gloves, threw them over the body of the unconscious woman and closed the boot. It was chilling to see the precision with which he had done everything. From his brisk actions, it seemed as if hiding bodies in the boot of his car, was as routine a job as changing the tyre of his car. The bright headlights of his car sliced through the dark night as he drove away. A pool of thick, crimson-red blood on the road, was the mute witness to this macabre crime. Will the murderer be able to get away? Will Kalyani be able to save an innocent man from a terrible fate and put a ruthless killer behind bars? Having taken up this case, the renowned criminal lawyer has a lot at stake and everything to lose. In an emotionally challenging and mentally exhausting race against time, who will come out the winner?

Escape from the Golden Cage Jun 26 2019 Why can't a girl help her father financially? Why can't a girl be the pillar of the family when tough time blows in? Why is a girl asked to give up on her dreams after her marriage? Why are daughters and daughter-in-laws always differentiated as far as their dreams, freedom and ambitions are concerned? Why can't a woman support a woman for her progress? Who is responsible for a woman's bondage and servility? The society or a woman herself? This book throws light on the social issues which take place within four walls of a house, especially in a woman's life. These are not the apparent problems like terrorism, religious rebels, pollution issues, racisms, global warming, etc. These are the hidden issues which suppress and destroy the entire life of women silently, especially those women who have their own wings to fly. Since centuries, women have been getting dominated for some or other reasons. Still this tyranny has not lost its stability. Before she used to be dominated physically, in this century she faces the oligarchy mentally by not getting permission from the society to have her own space. Many a times, she is not allowed to have her own space even for good works. Sometimes she is prevented by the men or women and sometimes she herself accepts her slavery. Why women force women to accept that there is no life of a woman after marriage. This negative thought binds her to make her marriage life doomed. She is ready to gain the responsibility that is why she gets married happily with positive thoughts but along with the responsibilities of the entire family if she steals sometime for herself to do the work of her own interest, what is wrong in that? Aditi, the protagonist of the story cannot give the answers of all the above questions which are faced by various Indian women but she finds the solution of it and the solution is 'Ignorance and Escape'. Her consistency of ignoring the social tyranny for women's honour and independence takes her towards her career goals.

CURSIVE WRITING JOINING LETTERS. Sep 02 2022

God of the Deep Well Feb 12 2021 We all have, many a times, experienced this happening like thinking about an old friend in the morning and suddenly meeting him on the railway station the same evening or getting his phone call. Many such things do happen around us that cannot be explained by the laws of science. If we collect the tales of such unexplained events, we will realize that there are much more things for science to discover about nature than what it has already achieved. I am writing some of my own experiences with the unknown. I know that it will remind you of the many experiences that you had yourself. I am hopeful that this chain reaction will lead to a thought process that will finally culminate into scientific research projects in the fields of unknown powers.

Arabic and Chinese Handwriting Recognition Jan 26 2022 In the fall of 2006, the University of Maryland, along with various government and industrial sponsors, invited leading researchers from all over the world to a two-day Summit on Arabic and Chinese Handwriting Recognition (SACH 2006). The event acted as a complement to the biennial Symposium on Document Image Understanding Technology (SDIUT), providing a focused glimpse into the state of the art in Arabic and Chinese handwriting recognition. It offered a forum for interaction with prominent researchers at the forefront of the scientific community and provided an opportunity for participants to help explore possible directions of the field. This book is a result of the expansion, peer review, and revision of selected papers presented at this meeting. Handwriting recognition remains the Holy Grail of document analysis, and Arabic and Chinese scripts embrace many of the most significant challenges. We are pleased to have 16 scientific papers covering the original topics of handwritten Arabic and Chinese, as well as 2 papers covering other handwritten scripts. We asked each author to not only describe the techniques used in addressing the problem, but to attempt to identify the key research challenges and problems that the community faces. The result is an impressive collection of manuscripts that provide various detailed views of the state of research. In this book, six articles deal directly with Arabic handwriting. • Cheriet provides an overview of the problems of Arabic recognition and how systems can use natural language processing techniques to correct errors in lexicon-based systems.
