Many political observers believe that at least half that amount is wasted. But, which half? Edward Schwartzman answers that question based upon experience gained in seventy-five campaigns. "Political Campaign Craftsmanship" treats both the art and science of campaigning, describing the procedures basic to modern professional campaigning. This practical guide to campaigns covers the entire process and gives specific strategies for every phase.

A Little Less than Love? Feb 14 2021 Now nearing seventy, recollections from her past suddenly return to haunt Lecce Connor when she rediscovers a collection of letters, an old diary and other love tokens in her attic. These are all that remain of two brief love affairs that once turned her life upside down. Affairs with Dian, a charismatic and attractive older woman and the much younger Karin, charming, passionate, yet secretive. Realising that she must have forgotten them so completely for a reason, her first impulse is to burn them, to leave her 'unremembering mind' in peace. But the faint flutter of unease as she catches sight of her name printed in green ink finally intrigues her into opening her very own Pandora's box and discovering the secrets within.

The Gauntlet of Time Oct 01 2019 Time travel. It's always been a crowd-pleasing topic for most. The power sought after and craved by everyone—whether they missed the lottery by a single digit or had a rough childhood that they decided needed changing. But, despite all the fantastic dreams, the world knows time travel isn't real. Enter Jericho Johnson Not only is time travel very real to him, he's used it in the usual ways one would expect—getting rich, predicting world-changing events and, more importantly, traveling to whenever he chooses just for kicks. But just when he thinks his secret is safe, he discovers two other time travelers. One politely wants him to stop while he's ahead. The other wants to end time as we know it and bring the planet to the brink of destruction. So, no pressure.

Urban Growth and Innovation Jan 16 2021 Knowledge externalities - i.e. intellectual gains made by exchange of information for which no direct compensation is given to the producer of the knowledge - result in higher economic growth rates across urban areas, as well as higher degrees of innovation intensity in those locations where economic activity is dense. By combining theories and methodologies on localised growth and innovation density from the fields of geography and economics, he puts forward an innovative spatial econometric model which contributes to a clearer understanding of actual processes of growth and innovation and their linkages to industry and spatially determined agglomeration factors. In doing so, the book acknowledges the increasing importance of geographical composition and distance for the transmission of knowledge and skills in a society in which information becomes easier to access.
