Five centuries of farming Jun 19 2021 Where the lower reaches of the rivers Rijn, Maas and Schelde have passed through the Northwest-European plain to finally flow out into the North Sea, a unique country of towns had come about during the Late Middle Ages. Since then, due to its natural and central location, this country, the Netherlands, has turned into a true crossroads of European trade connections between east and west, north and south. A highly urbanised country emerged and as the urban economies prospered they have had a great impact on the surrounding countryside. This in turn has affected the rural communities and has stimulated all kinds of agrarian activities. Highly productive agribusiness complexes have been the result. Today experts rank Dutch agriculture and horticulture as one of the most productive in the world. Milk production per cow and arable farming and horticulture, productivity per man-hour is amongst the highest known. This book is meant to give an overview of the historical processes of five centuries of farming and it makes clear that the old farming society was only seemingly static. This account of Dutch agricultural history demonstrates how Dutch farmers and horticulturist have always been keen on resetting their aims when the ever changing economic environment induced them to do so.

A Writer's World May 19 2021 In a wonderfully evocative collection of her travel writing and reportage from over five decades, Jan Morris - a constant traveller - has produced a unique portrait of the twentieth century. Ranging from New York to Venice, Sydney to Berlin, and the Middle East to South Africa, Jan Morris was a witness to such seminal moments as the Eichmann trial, the first ascent of Everest, the fall of the Berlin Wall and the handover of Hong Kong. Offering a tremendously perceptive and highly personal view of the world, she is as much concerned with conveying the 'feel' of these moments as the events themselves. And, as ever, she displays her unique and inimitable literary style, at once funny, wise and sad. Jan Morris's collection of travel writing and reportage spans over five decades and includes such titles as Venice, Coronation Everest, Hong Kong, Spain, Manhattan '45, A Writer's World and the Pax Britannica Trilogy. Hav, her novel, was shortlisted for the Booker Prize and the Arthur C. Clarke Award. 'A glorious compendium of adventure and wisdom' Pico Iyer

Abgrenzung und Hoffnung Feb 25 2022 Europavorstellungen in Zeiten transnationalen Kommunikation. Die Bedeutung von »Europa« veränderte sich im 20. Jahrhundert fortlaufend. Nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg stand es politisch für die Vision eines friedlich geeinten Kontinents, wurde aber in erster Linie auf »Westeuropa« bezogen. Bislang wurden Europavorstellungen vor allem an politischen und intellektuellen Debatten ausgemacht. Ariane Brill analysiert dagegen die öffentlichen Vorstellungen, die Journalisten breitenwirksam in drei Ländern aufbrachten: Sie entstanden durch eine transnationale gesellschaftliche Kommunikation, deren Zuschreibungen sich von ideengeschichtlichen Entwürfen durchaus unterscheiden. Neben politischen Diskursen über Europa werden Imaginationen im Feld der Kultur, des Sports und des Tourismus untersucht und charakteristische Schlüsselbegriffe und Narrative deutlich. Dabei zeigt die Studie, dass »Europa« stets mit Hoffnung verbunden war, aber ebenso mit der Abgrenzung zum außer- sowie innereuropäischen »Anderen«.
